1. All consignment activity is by appointment, our website or through United States Postal Service.
2. New Uniformity sets appropriate prices on items based upon a combination of experience, prices for new uniforms, knowledge of trends, and current resale values. Proceeds are split 50/50 between New Uniformity and the consigner.
3. New Uniformity displays or lists (as appropriate) consigned items for a maximum of 12 months, unless the item is retired and no longer used by the Department of Defense. After 6 months, the remaining items will be considered for a price reduction. If the items have not sold in the allotted 12 months or by the date of retirement, the items donated to the appropriate charity by New Uniformity.
4. Consigner's agree to pay shipping and handling to have items returned upon demand. Additionally, if items are shipped to New Uniformity via our website and postage is due the cost of shipping will be deducted from the amounts due from the items sold.
5. Items we attempt to return to the consigner by mail to the address on file that are returned to New Uniformity by the postal service will become the property of New Uniformity.
6. Consigners will be sent a check for sold items. Checks will be sent when all items have sold or when the consigner's share of sales exceeds $75, whichever occurs first.
7. Consignments must be in excellent condition. Any defects should be brought to our attention upon presentation. If merchandise requires cleaning, polishing or minor repair, and we choose to accept it, we reserve the right to charge a fee of $15/hour (to be deducted from consigner's account) for such services. If defects are discovered after an item has been consigned, New Uniformity may do any or all of the following: List item "as-is"; reduce price for quick sale; or returned to consigner.
8. New Uniformity will take reasonable care of all consigned items and is not liable for the loss or damage to any consigned items.
9. New Uniformity reserves the right to review the terms of this contact to make reasonable adjustments as necessary. New Uniformity also reserves the right to terminate this contract without notice and return all unsold items to consigner by mail at the address on file.

I have read the above and agree to all terms and/or conditions and I have received a copy of this contract.
